1934 PRICE LIST

Gladioli, Dahlias, Irises

I wish to thank my many customers for past orders and hope for a continuance of same. If you do not know what to select, send me any sum you like and I will select choice varieties which I will guarantee to please. I have been in the flower business since 1881. Small orders filled as careful as large ones. Sums under $1.00 can be remitted in unused stamps, 3-cent ones preferred. If you remit by check, send 10 cents extra for collection.

GLADIOLI

L means large  $1\frac{1}{4}$  up, M medium  $\frac{3}{4}$  up, S  $\frac{3}{4}$  down. All bulbs guaranteed true to name. Have never had any Thrip in my garden. Zua—Dwarf early crinkled bluish white. 10c.

If interested in named Irises, send for list of 100 kinds.

30 all different named labelled Irises, including a rare 50c one, $1.00.

I have several hundred choice large flowering tall Irises, no two alike, $2.00 per 100. They average as good as the named kinds. Many of them should be named—some will be named. 25 or 50 sold at the 100 rate. If you live beyond the 4th zone and inclose postage, I will send double of the amount of postage in rare named labelled kinds.

I will exchange named Irises for named Dahlias, Glads and Irises. My origination, Ozark Blue, is a very large sky blue, standards and falls same shade, price $2.00. Dusky Boy is a very large tall Iris, standards dusky pink satiny color, falls darker. The above two Irises attract the attention of everyone. One large grower pronounced them the best two Irises he had ever seen. A few roots of Dusky Boy at $5.00. Send for list of others of my originations, all fine ones.

Jumbo Cucumber, 2 feet long, prolific, fine for pickles, stands drouth. Packet seed, 5c.

Giant Mallow Marvels, perennial, blooms all year. Packet, 5c. Everything on this list sent prepaid.

If you want Gladioli bulblets in small quantities write me. My health is very poor and I do not grow in large quantity, no whole-sale list issued. Don't send coins in letters if you can avoid it. Stamps or Money Order preferred.
